This contract is for the M3 Early College program. The M3 Middle College High School program is an innovative dual enrollment program between Milwaukee Public Schools (MPS), Milwaukee Area Technical College (MATC), and University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee (UWM) that allows eligible students to complete their high school graduation requirements while earning up to 19 college credits from both MATC and UWM. This contract is for students to take 6 of those credits at the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee. Up to 100 MPS students will attend classes at the UWM Campus (Fridays) and be working to be working to earn up 3 college credits first semester and another 3 second semester. They will be taking the courses listed below. Semester 1: Ethnic Studies 101 (3 credits) This course is organized around the historical collision of distinct peoples in the Americas. Students will be looking at the ways that Europeans, Indian Nations and Africans-initially enslaved and eventually free- struggled and interacted, shaping what we now know as American culture. The central focus will be on these interactions as they have shaped the nation of the United States. In this course, students will be working on the assumption that social identities take on meaning only because of historical circumstances. This approach is called social constructionism. Students will engage in discussions about the social construction of identity. This means the ways categories we think of as natural or physical, like black and white, man and woman are social. They have been created over time by laws, resistance movements, popular culture, economic policies; in other words, by people. Course material and readings will be focusing, in good part, on Milwaukee as a site of the ongoing
